SECTION 3: Use of Academic Title

Article 64

Veterinarians nationals of a Member State which meet the requirements of Art. 58-61 are entitled to use the legal title of professional training acquired in the Member State of origin or provenance, in the language of that State, and, where appropriate, the abbreviation of this title. The legal title of professional training will be accompanied by the name and location of the institution or examining board which issued this title.

SECTION 4: Provisions in Order to Facilitate the Effective Practice of the Right of Establishment and Freedom to Provide Services Regarding the Activities of a Veterinarian

Article 65

(1) In order to issue the right to practice the veterinary profession, the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall request:

- a) evidence of the applicant nationality;
- b) copy of the diplomas, attestations or other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession and, where appropriate, certification of that person's professional experience in cases laid down in Article 63 paragraph (1) - (7);
- c) documents issued by the competent authorities of the Member State of origin or provenance on: the moral character of the person concerned, the absence of bankruptcy cases, the absence of a serious professional error or offence leading to suspension or prohibition of the profession practice; if such documents are not issued by the competent authorities of the Member State of origin or provenance, these shall be replaced by a statement on own responsibility or a solemn statement, satisfying the conditions of validity in the Member State of origin or provenance where it has been issued;

d) document regarding the physical or mental health, requested in the Member State of origin; if such act is not required in the Member State of origin, a certificate of health issued by competent authority of that State shall be accepted;

e) attestation issued by competent authorities of the Member State of origin, stating that the formal qualifications for access to the veterinary profession shall be those set out in Annex 6.

(2) The College of Romanian Veterinarians may require to nationals of Member States wishing to pursue the veterinary profession in Romania a certificate issued by banks and insurance companies in another Member State regarding the financial statement or evidence that they are insured against pecuniary risks arising from professional liability, if such documents are required to Romanian citizens, as well.

(3) If Romania is a State of origin or provenance, the Romanian competent authorities shall issue documents as referred to in paragraph (1). c) and d), within two months.

Article 66

(1) Where the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall be aware of serious matters that can have repercussions on the commencement of professional activity or on the practice of veterinary profession in Romania, committed by veterinarians nationals of a Member State prior to the establishment in Romania and outside its territory, it shall inform the Member State of origin or provenance of those concerned.

(2) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall notify the host Member State the requested information on disciplinary work-related or administrative and criminal sanctions, as well as the penalties concerning the practice of veterinary profession, applied throughout the period of profession practice in Romania.

(3) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall analyze the information provided by the host Member State concerning serious and specific acts committed by veterinarians Romanian citizens or veterinarians from Romania previous their establishment in the host Member State and outside its territory, facts that can have repercussions on the professional activity beginning or the practice of the veterinary profession in that State.

(4) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall decide on the nature and extent of the investigations it undertakes in situations for which it was noticed, and inform the host Member State, within three months from receiving its request, the resulting consequences concerning the attestations and documents issued in these cases.

(5) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall ensure confidentiality of transmitted information.

Article 67

The documents as referred to in Article 65 paragraph (1) c) and d) and paragraph (2) and Article 66 shall be valid for 3 months from the date of issue.

Article 68

(1) The application of a veterinarian national of a Member State regarding the access to veterinary services in Romania shall be resolved by the College of Romanian Veterinarians within three months from the date of the file containing the documents as referred to in Article 16.

(2) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall confirm the applicant the file receipt within one month from the registration date and shall inform, if necessary, about the lack of any document.

(3) In cases as referred to in Article 66 paragraph (1) and (3), the review request shall suspend the resolution legal term.

Article 69

Veterinarians nationals of a Member State may take the oath required for registration in the College of Romanian Veterinarians in Romanian or country of origin or provenance language, or an appropriate equivalent formula of oath or declaration.

Article 70

(1) This Article provisions shall apply only where the services provider moves to Romania for the veterinary profession practice temporarily and occasionally; the temporary and occasional provision of veterinary services is assessed on a case by case rule, especially depending on the period, frequency, periodicity and continuity of practice providing.

(2) Notwithstanding the provisions of special laws and this Article, the College of Romanian Veterinarians cannot restrict, for reasons concerning the professional qualifications, the freedom to provide veterinary services in Romania, if the provider is legally established in a Member State in order to practice the veterinary profession, further called the Member State of establishment.

(3) When the provider moves to Romania, he must comply with the current legislation on the organization and practicing the veterinary profession, the administrative rules in the sanitary-veterinary field, as well as this Statute, the Code of Medical Veterinary Ethics and the Rules of Organization and Functioning of the College of Romanian Veterinarians.

(4) Veterinarians nationals of a Member State established in one of the Member States shall be exempted from registration in the College of Romanian Veterinarians when requesting access to the activities of the veterinary profession or their practice, in order to temporarily provide veterinary services in Romania.

(5) Veterinarians provided in paragraph (4) shall be registered in the register kept by the College of Romanian Veterinarians for this purpose, during the temporary provision of veterinary services, in order to implement the provisions relating to professional conduct.

(6) Where during the temporary provision of services in Romania the persons as referred to in paragraph(4) breach of disciplinary or administrative professional provisions required by law, the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall inform the Member State in which those concerned are established.

(7) Where the service provider first moves from another Member State to Romania in order to provide veterinary services, the College of Romanian Veterinarians may request to be informed thereof in advance by a written declaration including the details of any insurance cover or other means of personal or collective protection with regard to professional liability; such declaration shall be renewed once a year if the service provider intends to provide temporary or occasional veterinary services in Romania during that year; the service provider may supply the declaration by any means.

(8) For the first provision of veterinary services or if there is a material change in the situation substantiated by the documents, the College of Romanian Veterinarians may require that the declaration be accompanied by the following documents:

- a) evidence of the nationality of the service provider;
- b) an attestation certifying that the holder is legally established in a Member State for the purpose of pursuing the profession of veterinarian and that the practice is not prohibited, even temporarily, at the time of issue;
- c) evidence of professional qualifications.

(9) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall withdraw, if necessary, temporarily or permanently, the document referred to in paragraph (8) letter b) issued to a veterinarian, a Romanian citizen or national of a Member State, established in Romania, where the penalties provided by law suspension or raising of the right to free practice of the profession are applied to this person.

Article 71

(1) The College of Romanian Veterinarians may request to the competent authorities of the Member State of establishment, for each provision of veterinary services, any relevant information concerning the legality of the establishment and proper conduct of the provider and the absence of disciplinary or criminal penalties.

(2) If Romania is a Member State of origin, the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall provide to the competent authorities of the host Member State the required information regarding the provider legality of establishment and good conduct, as well as the lack of disciplinary or criminal penalties in accordance with Article 66.

(3) The competent authorities will ensure the exchange of all information necessary in order to treat properly the complaint of a service recipient against a provider of veterinary services; the recipient shall be informed regarding the outcome of the complaint.

(4) Veterinarians nationals of a Member State whose diplomas, attestations or other documents granting that the official veterinary qualifications are recognized under this

Statute, shall practice the profession in Romania with the Romanian professional title corresponding to qualifications acquired using its abbreviation as well.

Article 72

(1) Veterinarians nationals of a Member State who are established and practice the veterinary profession in Romania shall be obliged to inform the competent authorities regarding the veterinary legislation and Code of Medical Veterinary Ethics.

(2) In order to provide information laid down in paragraph (1) to any interested person, information points have been established in the College of Romanian Veterinarians and the National Sanitary-veterinary and Food Safety Authority.

Article 73

(3) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall facilitate, when appropriate, the linguistic knowledge necessary for practicing the veterinary profession in Romania, for the interested people, in their interests and their recipients'.

(1) The recognition of diplomas, attestations and other documents issued by Member States in Romania shall be carried out even when the official title of qualification was issued by the competent authorities of one of these Member States and the professional training of the veterinary profession was acquired wholly or partially in another Member State.

(2) In case of doubt on the legality of issuing the diploma, the holder's identity, higher education institution issuing status and level of education completed, when a competent authority of a Member State has issued a formal qualification, which includes training followed wholly or partially in a legal institution placed in another Member State, where Romania is host Member State, the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall have the right to request the competent authority in the Member State of origin that issued the title, to check:

a) whether the training provided by the institution in question has been officially certified by the educational institution of the Member State of origin where had been granted the title of;

b) whether the official title of qualification issued is the same as that which would be issued if the cycle of training would be entirely conducted in the State of origin that had granted title of;

c) whether the title of qualification issued confer the same rights of access to the profession in the Member State of origin where the official title of qualification had been issued.

Article 74

If there are reasonable grounds for suspicion on the legality of issuing the diploma holder identity, the status of the issuing higher education institution and the level of the completed studies, the College of Romanian Veterinarians may request the competent authorities of a Member State to confirm the authenticity of diplomas, attestations and awards certifying the veterinarian qualification issued in that state and, where appropriate, confirmation that their holder meets the minimum training conditions laid down in Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and Council.

Article 75

The provisions of this Statute shall also apply to individuals in possession of a formal qualification in veterinary medicine:

a) to a Romanian citizen husband/wife, as well as to the direct line ascendants and descendents of a Romanian citizen, regardless of their nationality.

b) to persons as referred to in Article 2 (A) sections 3, 6 and 7 of the Emergency Government Ordinance no. 102/2005 regarding the free movement in Romania of the nationals of the Member States of the European Union and the European Economic Area, approved by Law no. 260/2005, as amended and supplemented;

c) to third-country nationals beneficiaries of permanent resident status in Romania, according to legal provisions in force;

d) to beneficiaries of resident status granted by one of the Member States, in accordance with the Council Directive 2003/109/EC of 25 November 2003 on the status of third country nationals who are long-term residents, published in the Official Journal of the European Union series L, no. 16 of 23 January 2004.

Article 76

(1) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall apply to veterinarians nationals of a Member State requesting access to or practice veterinary services in Romania the same treatment as for veterinarians Romanian citizens.

(2) Provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply as well to prevention activities that, complying with the law, involve the practice of public authority, to the extent that these responsibilities are granted to Romanian veterinarians carrying out veterinary services under wage and/or independently.

(3) Provisions of paragraph (1) shall apply as well to food inspection activities of animal or animal origin products upon which the Romanian veterinarians have been authorized to practice the powers of public veterinary services.

(4) The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall grant access to these activities subject to the presentation in an interview where the veterinarian concerned should demonstrate knowledge of the competent national authority in the Romanian legislation.

Article 77

(1) The Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports shall notify, for information, to the European Commission, the laws, regulations and administrative provisions adopted regarding the issue of diplomas, attestations or other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession.

(2) Based on data provided by the National Sanitary-veterinary and Food Safety Authority and College of Romanian Veterinarians, the Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports shall notify the European Commission any information required on the recognition of diplomas, attestations or other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession.

Article 78

Where the diplomas, attestations and other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession issued by a Member State to its nationals, do not meet the requirements of this Statute in order to be recognized, the Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports, and the College of Romanian Veterinarians shall examine the knowledge and skills certified by those diplomas, attestations and titles, and the experience of the applicant in comparison to the skills and knowledge requirements under the Romanian law.

Article 79

(1) Diplomas, attestations and other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession obtained outside the European Union or the European Economic Area and the Swiss Confederation and recognized in one of these states shall be examined by the Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports under the law.

(2) In cases as referred to in paragraph (1) additional training and/or in cooperation with the College of Romanian Veterinarians, professional experience gained by the person concerned in a Member State or outside it, shall be examined as well.

Article 80

(1) The decision of the College of Romanian Veterinarians of rejection of application for professional recognition of diplomas, attestations or other documents granting qualification in the veterinary profession shall state the reasons that led to rejection.

(2) The College of Romanian Veterinarians decisions on recognition of this Statute can be challenged in administrative courts.

Article 81

The College of Romanian Veterinarians shall issue to veterinarians Romanian citizens who travel to the Member States, attestations or any document necessary for professional recognition in the above mentioned States.

Article 82

(1) Documents recognized in the European Union, the European Economic Area or the Swiss Confederation issued to veterinarians who graduated in veterinary medicine in Romania and hold a degree in veterinary profession shall be the Certificate of Conformity (Annex 7) and the European Attestation of Current Professional Status (Annex 8).

(2) The procedure for obtaining, issuing and monitoring the Certificate of Conformity and the European Attestation of Current Professional Status shall be approved by the National Council of the College of Romanian Veterinarians.

CHAPTER VII: Qualification, Specialization and Promotion

Article 83

Veterinarians can qualify, specialize or obtain professional degrees.

Article 84

Veterinarians can qualify and specialize by:

- a) postgraduate studies;
- b) primary veterinarian;
- c) PhD.

Article 85

(1) The Ministry of Education, Research, Youth and Sports together with the National Sanitary-veterinary and Food Safety Authority, in collaboration with institutions of higher education in the field, at the proposal of College of Romanian Veterinarians and the General Association of Romanian Veterinarians, established basic professional profiles certifying the professional degree of primary veterinarian.

CHAPTER VIII: Final Provisions

Article 86

This Statute transposes the provisions of Article 2 (1) and (2), Article 3 (1) d) and paragraph (3), Article 4, 5, 6, Article 7 (1) - (3), Article 8, Article 10 letter. b) d) and g), Article 12, 14, Article 21 paragraph (1), (6) and (7), Article 23, 39, 50-54 and Article 56 point 5.4.2 of Annex V and VII to Directive 2005/36/EC of the European Parliament and Council.

Article 87

Failure to comply with this Statute shall be punished according to Law no. 160/1998, republished, as amended, and shall be misconduct of the Code of Medical Veterinary Ethics.
